What will I see from the Sky Deck? You'll see the best view and best overview of Chicago. At 1,353 feet (412 meters), the Sky Deck is the highest observatory in Chicago. The view is amazing! You can see 40 – 50 miles (65 - 80 kilometers) on a clear day. Imagine seeing Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin, just by walking around the Sky Deck. Explore Chicago top to bottom...and from yesterday to today. Sky Deck was voted one of the 7 Wonders of Chicago by Chicago Tribune Readers. It's Chicago's most visited and highest observatory. It's the best view of Chicago and beyond from the tallest building in the Western Hemisphere. Interactive displays highlight the character and characters of this great city. Bottom line... you haven't seen Chicago until you've seen it from the Sky Deck! Tour cost is $14 and we will stop for fast food dinner.

Thursday you can stay on campus or...

Wrigley Field Tours provide an insider's look at more than 90 years of history in this legendary ballpark. Tour stops may include the Cubs clubhouse, visitor's clubhouse, dugouts, on-deck circles, press box, bleachers and mezzanine suites. On days when there are no activities in the park you will receive an all access tour. The conclusion of the tour climaxes as you walk out onto Wrigley Field. Tour cost is $23 and we will stop for fast food dinner.

Friday in Chicago ...after we leave Student Life

Historic Navy Pier is Chicago's lakefront playground, and the Midwest's #1 tourist and leisure destination. Navy Pier attracts more than 8.6 million visitors a year. Navy Pier is the place where all of Chicagoland and tourists from around the world have come together since 1995 to enjoy the beauty and the thrills of a day on Lake Michigan. From rides to restaurants, exhibitions to entertainment, shopping to dining cruises and tour boats, Navy Pier has it all - in a location unlike any other! There's so much to do in our 50 acres of parks, promenades, gardens, shops, eateries and attractions. Take a ride on our 15-story tall Ferris wheel. Catch a movie at the IMAX® Theatre. Visit three floors of hands-on fun at the Chicago Children's Museum inside the Family Pavilion. Experience any one of the cruise boat rides departing from Navy Pier's South Dock. Or just kick back and enjoy the incredible feats of talented Chinese acrobats in Cirque Shanghai at the Pepsi Skyline Stage or groove to the sounds of live music. Navy Pier also offers dining opportunities as diverse as Chicago itself. Dine at one of the fine restaurants or sample a variety of great tastes to be found at the food court in the Family Pavilion. You can find everything from bikes to books and from souvenirs to sunglasses at the retail shops in the Family Pavilion open year-round. Cost is lunch and personal shopping.

Millennium Park is an award-winning center for art, music, architecture, and landscape design. The result of a unique partnership between the City of Chicago and the philanthropic community, the 24.5-acre park features the work of world-renowned architects, planners, artists and designers. Among Millennium Park's prominent features are the Frank Gehry-designed Jay Pritzker Pavilion, the most sophisticated outdoor concert venue of its kind in the United States; the interactive Crown Fountain by Jaume Plensa; the contemporary Lurie Garden designed by the team of Kathryn Gustafson, Piet Oudolf and Robert Israel; and Anish Kapoor's hugely popular Cloud Gate sculpture on the AT&T Plaza.

Since its opening in July 2004, Millennium Park has hosted millions of people, making it one of the most popular destinations in Chicago. Audio tours of Millennium Park for your MP3 Player are now available for download. Cost is free.

Water Tower Place Mall is at the pinnacle of Chicago's famed Magnificent Mile Chicago's and is the premier shopping destination, featuring the largest number of stores exclusive to Chicago.
